On January 14, 2016, the Court held a status conference and hearing as to the defendant's appeal of Magistrate Judge Sallie Kim's detention order in this case. After concluding that the defendant is a risk of flight and that the defendant should be detained because there are no set of conditions that can reasonably assure the defendant's appearance, the Court affirmed Magistrate Judge Kim's decision and ordered the defendant detained. See Docket No. 41 (Minute Order, January 14, 2016). At the hearing, the Court also stated that it was concerned about the conditions of the defendant's confinement as described by defense counsel and requested that an explanation of the anticipated confinement conditions be filed with the Court after Alameda County Counsel (representing the Glenn Dyer Detention Facility) and defense counsel have an opportunity to confer. See id.

US STATUS REPORT RE CONDITIONS OF CONFINEMENT

1 Immediately after the hearing on January 14, 2016, the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney
2 conveyed the Court's concern to Alameda County Counsel and coordinated with defense counsel in 3 order to facilitate a discussion. On January 19, 2016, the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney, Alameda
4 County Counsel, representatives from the Alameda County Sheriff's Office (who operate the Glenn
5 Dyer Detention Facility), and defense counsel participated in a conference call. Pursuant to the Court's
6 request for an explanation of the defendant's conditions of confinement, Alameda County stated that it
7 would submit a separate filing on its own behalf to the Court on or about January 29, 2016.

8
9 Respectfully submitted,

10 BRIAN J. STRETCH
11 Acting United States Attorney
